Subj: Back to “Sinh Hoạt” Updates, Initiatives, Resources and Services

Thanks be to God! Our VEYM is resuming in-person ministry in full swing, and with the Eucharistic Revival in mind. In an effort to accompany Chapters across the country, along with the National Academic Committee, the newly installed National Executive Committee invites all Chapters to attend the upcoming townhalls and actively participate in upcoming key initiatives, as well as capitalizing on the resources provided:

A. Resources and Services

Weekly Gospel Booklets*

For chapters requesting our free Weekly Gospel Booklets for our youth members, please go to the link below and place your order. Once ordered, the Headquarters Office will ship out accordingly. While the booklets are available free of charge, donations for the booklets and shipping are welcomed. <https://store.veym.net/weekly-gospel-booklets-2022-2023>.

Training Camp Scholarships*

To support our young Youth Leaders and aspiring Youth Leaders, all eligible members are invited to take advantage of the 20 training camp scholarships available. Please see the scholarship announcement.

VEYM Wellness Support*

VEYM Wellness is a confidential short-term support service designed to assist VEYM adult members gain better insight into their lives, whether it be from a spiritual, psychological, medical, or emotional perspective. The support process involves a therapeutic relationship between you and a priest, a religious brother or sister, or pro-bono licensed mental health provider who will journey with you through. The support service involves speaking with a VEYM Wellness member via telephone and may cover a variety of supportive topics per your request. To request a consultation, please contact veym.wellness@gmail.com.
